HIGH PERFORMANCE,
NATURAL WOOD FLOOR
PROTECTION

Quality is in our nature

ORIGINAL WOOD™ Environment

ORIGINAL WOOD™ Environment combines excellent performance with respect for people and the environment: it has been designed to meet high environmental standards (very low V.O.C. level, waste-free production, raw materials and colourings having a minimal impact on the environment), and it benefits from Blanchon innovative technology:

- QUICK DRYING.
- ODOUR FREE,
- RE-USE OF THE PREMISES FEW HOURS ONLY AFTER THE APPLICATION,
- HIGHLY-RESISTANT, BEAUTIFUL AND LONG-LASTING PROTECTION

With its ORIGINAL WOOD™ Environment, Blanchon are once again confirming its environmentally-friendly spirit of innovation, and demonstrate that performance and respect for the environment can go well together.

FOR A SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT TO PROTECT PEOPLE AND THE ENVIRONMENT

Our research aims to achieve high-performance wood floor protection products respecting people and the environment.

The environment is a key concern in each and every stage of development of our products.

A production site exclusive for water-based products.

Belmont-Tramonet: a production site exclusively dedicated to water-based products. This ultra-modern production unit exemplifies our commitment to environmentally-friendly production. Consequently, all the water-based varnishes, wood floor lacquers, woodstains and paints produced on this site are totally environmentally friendly in content and throughout the production phase.

A recognised and certified environmental system

Naturally, the success of our product ranges is based on keeping up with the latest trends in decoration and creating high-performance products of certified quality which are fully environmentally-friendly.

Ecological issues are a real priority for Blanchon as is clear from the numerous certifications the company has obtained for 15 years.

We have made the environmental quality of our products a priority, with a view to managing them properly throughout their life cycle.
